William Miller

D A

O Lord, my God, in You I trust,
 A - rise, O Lord, do as you please,
 If I have done in iniquity,
 But, I'll seek re - fuge in the Lord,
 So, when I'm weak, and when I'm strong.

D A D

O, save me for my ways are just.
 De - liv - er me from en - e - mies.
 Or fought with him at peace with me.
 And hide in Him, my on - ly shield.
 The Lord a lone, will be my song.

A

My ly - ing foes, You must ad - dress,
 A - wake for me, judge what is best,
 Then let my en - e - my op - press,
 His praise I'll sing; His name I'll bless,
 Though I live just and do my best,

D A D

Ac - cord - ing to my right - eous - ness.
 Ac - cord - ing to my right - eous - ness.
 Ac - cord - ing to his right - eous - ness.
 Ac - cord - ing to His right - eous - ness.
 My re - fuge is His right - eous - ness.
