I Will Run the Race

1. I will run and not be wea – ry. I will walk and not be faint.
2. I will lose my life to save it, tak-ing up my dai – ly cross.
3. For the joy that's set be – fore me, for the glo – ry of His name,
4. We're op – pressed. but not for – sak – en, driv-en down, but not de – stroyed.

For my Sav – ior's gone be – fore me, and He's stand-ing at the gate.
I re – nounce this world's af – fec – tions, count-ing ev – ery-thing as loss.
If my Lord will count me wor – thy, I will bear His scorn and shame.
Though our mor – tal flesh is dy – ing, we will soon be o – ver – joyed

I will keep my eyes on Je – sus, press-ing on – ward to the fight.
Let – ting go of what's be – hind me, reach-ing for – ward to the prize
Though the world be set a – gainst me, I will spread His word a – broad.
To be free from sin and sor – row, to be home for – ev – er – more,

He will keep my foot from turn – ing to the left or to the right.
of the fin – al res – ur – rec – tion, when the dead in Christ shall rise.
There's an – oth – er in the fur – nace, and He is the Son of God!
to be ab – sent from the bo – dy, to be pre – sent with the Lord.

I will run the race be – fore me, till I see my Sav – ior's face.

Till I'm stand – ing in His glo – ry, I will run the race!

Words and Music by Andrew Boone